Located in popular Riverside and showcasing the spectacular views, the spacious layout offers three large bedrooms, two with built in robes. The master suite is complemented with built in robes, an ensuite and the added feature of access to the front balcony that runs along the whole front of the property, through a glass, sliding door, where you'll be spoilt with the most amazing views of Launceston and the River Tamar. Offering a large formal lounge room with large windows allowing maximum light into the home, framing the beautiful views perfectly. Both the main bathroom and laundry are spacious, tidy and functional. Located on the lower level and with its own separate entry, an additional granny flat with bathroom and kitchenette is perfect for additional living. The large back yard is landscaped, shady and pet friendly. A double car garage underneath the home gives you plenty of additional storage. Positioned minutes to Riverside shopping centre, public and private schools, public transport and only a short commute to the city, this home makes for ultra convenient living.
