This blank canvas is located right on the 17th hole of St Georges Basin Golf Club with fabulous views out across the course. If you are looking for a project and want to put your own mark on a property, this is the house for you. Let your imagination create the perfect home to live or invest. The location has already been sorted. There are 3 bedrooms in total, 2 with ensuites. Huge living space downstairs and out the rear is a covered veranda taking in the beautiful outlook over the golf course. Attached to the home is a single garage with internal entry and drive through to the rear. So much potential awaits the right person who doesn't mind rolling up their sleeves to bring this home back to life.
