Prestigious Wahine Drive, this enchanting Queenslander residence offers a unique blend of coastal charm and Character comfort. Originally relocated to the island just over three years ago, this home exudes character and elegance, providing the perfect retreat for those seeking a sea change. Situated high on the Prestige's Passage, this home boasts panoramic views of the scenic Canaipa Passage and North Stradbroke Island. Enjoy the tranquillity of island living while still being within reach of local amenities and recreational activities. Upstairs, discover two cosy bedrooms, each equipped with air conditioning for year-round comfort and built-in's. The spacious bathroom includes an internal laundry and a separate toilet for added convenience. The open-plan lounge and dining area seamlessly flow onto the covered front deck, offering an idyllic space to soak in the breath-taking waterfront views, perfect for alfresco dining or simply relaxing and enjoying the sea breeze. Embrace the timeless elegance of this Queenslander, featuring original floorboards, high ceilings, decorative corbels, and stunning French doors. Each detail contributes to the home's character and charm, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. Underneath the home, a large area awaits, perfect for parking your car or expanding the living space. With legal height clearance, the potential to add extra bedrooms or create additional living areas is limitless, allowing you to tailor the home to suit your needs. Conveniences including a dishwasher, electric oven, cooktop, and indoor electric hot-water tank, enhancing both functionality and comfort. If you're ready for a sea change in a sought-after location, look no further. This charming Queenslander offers the opportunity to embrace island living at its finest. Whether you're fishing, relaxing, or simply enjoying the serene sea breeze, this home provides the perfect backdrop for a life filled with tranquillity and natural beauty.
