This impeccably maintained 3-bedroom home is an ideal investment or first-time homebuyer's dream. Boasting a spacious master bedroom with a walk-in robe and ensuite, as well as built-in robes in the remaining bedrooms, it offers comfortable living. The central bathroom features a soothing neutral colour palette, complemented by a separate toilet and laundry. At the rear of the house, the well-appointed kitchen shines with stainless steel appliances, including a dishwasher, stone countertops, and gas hot plates, providing ample preparation space. Adjacent to the kitchen is a welcoming living/dining area that opens onto an expansive pergola, perfect for hosting gatherings during the warmer months. The backyard is both sizable and low-maintenance, accommodating your furry companions and offering a convenient garden shed for storage needs. Additional features like ducted heating, a split system, high ceilings, and a double remote garage with backyard access enhance the property's appeal. Centrally located, this home is within walking distance to the main street, offers great freeway access, and is just a 3-minute drive from schools, day care facilities, and shops. Currently leased on a month-to-month basis at $1868 per month, there's potential for the current tenant to continue.
