

85B Deering Street, Ulladulla, NSW 2539

Sold Townhouse

Saturday, 23 September 2023

85B Deering Street, Ulladulla, NSW 2539

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 414 m²

Type: Townhouse

$1,130,000

Located on the headland of Ulladulla, this luxury house-sized torrens-titled townhome was designed as the ultimate for retirement living at the coast. With beautiful nature walks and Bombie Beach on your doorstep, you are moments to Ulladalla CBD and Harbour. This is a clever home. A low maintenance, lock and leave house with true house sized proportions. - 4 bedroom master built house constructed on a fabulous concrete slab with full insulation. Built to the highest standard without compromise, by renowned local builder Luke Gordon. - Modern beach home and sanctuary with generous kitchen, attached laundry and dining area to accommodate large family gatherings. Light filled living areas are designed to capture the morning sun.- To the rear of the home is a private master bedroom with en-suite, walk-in robe and additional bedroom or study, all with north facing private decks overlooking the stunning rear garden. - Upstairs, there is a lounge area and 2 bedrooms plus bathroom for family and guests. A completely separated wing that can be closed off when not occupied and where guests have their own privacy and space. Friends will love to come and visit. This home represents uncompromising quality, low maintenance living and a relaxed lifestyle opportunity. Enjoy ocean breezes, quiet enjoyment, privacy and sunshine. A rare combination so unique it won't last. South Coast living at its best.