Set on a ridgeline looking out to Mount Chincogan and over lush green valleys, the home is perfectly designed to incorporate the breath-taking hinterland views in an elevated position to capture sea breezes. Although you are only a five-minute drive away from the colourful town centre of Mullumbimby, this position feels like you are away from it all! This ideal family home has been thoughtfully designed to take advantage of the rural aspects, with floor to ceiling windows on all sides of the property, allowing light to flood the interior. The use of local stone in the garden and timber throughout the home, really anchors the house to its natural surroundings. The home comprises 3 double bedrooms with BIRs, study or 4th bedroom, media room/teenagers retreat, 2 bathrooms, the master featuring a large freestanding stone bath with picturesque views. Features:-
-generously proportioned chefs' kitchen with a magnificent timber island bench and top the line appliances.
-open plan living and dining which flows onto a large, covered deck with ample room for dining and relaxing.
-Set away from the house is a separate studio, ideal for a teenager's retreat, yoga studio or home office. Idyllic, picturesque, and well-established, this is an appealing package that will suit the discerning buyer looking for some significant green space, or the sea/tree changer wanting to get out of suburbia, without moving out to the back of beyond.
