Presenting this elegant Strathfield residence, a magnificent estate that sits on an enormous 1233sqm piece of land in the highly sought-after Redmyre Road location of Strathfield. This breathtaking piece of architecture was built in 1914 and boasts old-world charms that would be hard to find anywhere else. Designed by renowned architect Harry Kent, this landmark Arts & Crafts villa with Italianate features is a masterpiece that exudes luxury, elegance and sophistication from every corner. With five bedrooms, four bathrooms, spacious indoor and outdoor leisure areas and surrounded by manicured gardens, this sprawling residence is perfect for families and entertainers alike. Recently given the green light for state-of-the-art renovations by renowned architect Sam Crawford, a beautiful marriage of timeless and modern elements are proposed for further development. With council approvals in place, updates to the home will include a vaulted ceiling above the kitchen for ample sunlight, bi-fold doors that create a perfect indoor to outdoor flow and a breathtaking cabana overlooking the sparkling swimming pool. This prestigious property boasts polished timber flooring, an impressive entry foyer with a crystal chandelier, and an ideal combination of formal and informal living areas. The retreats feature an eclectic combination of high ceilings, brick exposed walls, stunning decorative fireplaces, beautiful feature lighting, and much more. A large family-sized kitchen with butler's pantry and impeccable finishes offers ample preparation space and storage. A leafy and luxurious resort-style entertaining space offers an immaculate in-ground swimming pool and wrap-around verandah perfect for outdoor dining. The traditional residence features five well-proportioned bedrooms, each with built-in robes and two with ensuites, and a total of four pristine bathrooms with delightful leadlight windows and intricate tiling. The property features a spacious home office bathed in sunlight, library/sitting room, lock-up garage with ample storage and internal access as well as underground cellar for additional storage. Quality inclusions such as security gates, pendant lighting, ceiling roses, ornate latticework, and alarm system have been installed throughout the estate. Situated within a prestigious blue-ribbon street, this stunning residence is just a short stroll from Strathfield Plaza, Meriden School, Strathfield Park, and Strathfield Station.
