This stunning Queenslander home has just undergone an extraordinary restoration from top to bottom. The impressive home combines a blend of period charm with modern amenities for a comfortable living experience over two levels. Upon entering the ground floor level you are immediately welcomed into the generous living areas, an ultra-modern and stylish kitchen with large walk-in pantry, island bench and quality fittings. The main bedroom suite is also located on the ground level with an enviable walk-in robe and beautiful ensuite. Internal stairs lead to the spacious upstairs living areas, with an additional 3 generous bedrooms plus large sleepout/5th bedroom, and open front veranda. Classic French doors, timber fretwork, a wide hallway, high ceilings and polished floors are attractive and appealing features of this gorgeous property. The large yard is fully fenced and secure with 6ft* timber fencing, together with an electric sliding gate offering convenient side street access. There is a sizeable 4 bay shed plus workshop and storage, perfect for all the projects. Family gatherings will be effortless with the expansive covered entertainment area and fire pit space. The established garden is low maintenance and even features a chook pen. There is nothing to do here except move in and live your extraordinary life, with abundant space for all the family to enjoy. This property offers the perfect blend of indoor and outdoor living. The prominently located home is on a generous 1,456m²* corner allotment on the Hervey Bay side of Maryborough.
