This lovely family home, located on the outskirts of Willunga, is situated on a working vineyard. Ideal for families, it features three spacious bedrooms, all of which are equipped with built-in robes providing ample storage space. The cozy lounge features a reverse cycle split system and combustion heating, ensuring year-round comfort for the entire family. The eat-in kitchen is designed for family meals and features electric cooking facilities. A large, all-weather entertaining area provides an excellent space for gatherings and relaxation, regardless of the season. The expansive fenced area is perfect for securing the family pet, free-ranging chickens, or cultivating a vegetable garden for the new season. Pets will be considered upon application. Don't miss the opportunity to make this charming property your new family home.
