Almost every inch of this Deer Park residence both inside and out has recently undergone extensive improvement and updating transforming what has been a shrewd investment for the current owners into a spectacular turn key home. Accommodation comprises 4 spacious bedrooms serviced by 2 lovely bathrooms with the living and entertainment options highlighted a great sized open plan kitchen/ meals / living area that flows out to the sizeable rear yard. A full size laundry with direct access to outside and double remote garage with internal access complete the property. Other features include ducted heating, split system cooling, downlights, new flooring, thick stone benches and brand new appliances in kitchen, landscaped gardens & new window furnishings just to name a few are all complimented by a location that is walking distance to parkland, Deer Park train station and the Derrimut Village. With all the hard work already done for you, a perfectly presented, modern, contemporary residence you can move straight into and enjoy awaits one lucky purchaser.
