This large family residence delivers an expansive open plan living room with a huge kitchen looking over the dining and family room, located across from parklands and sporting grounds. Featuring a wide entrance and three double bedrooms with built in robes, main bedroom has an ensuite and a 4th bedroom option in the living room (refer to floorplan). Other highlights include a central bathroom and separate laundry room, generous Caesarstone kitchen with island bench and loads of storage along with European cooking appliances. Entertain in style with a landscaped back yard which has double doors off the living and family room to an undercover deck. Central heating throughout with split system cooling , outside shed storage and off-street parking out the front of the home. A wonderful opportunity to live in such a large residence with a choice of parklands , schools, and easy access to public transport on Sydney and Melville Roads.
