We are so excited to bring to the market, 87 Reed Crescent, Wonthaggi. An admirable property, that sparks curiosity due to its privacy and appealing location right next to Tank Hill Reserve. Beautifully maintained over the years the open plan living is full of character with exposed beams and timber features. Three great size bedrooms, including ensuite to master bedroom provide an opportunity to make this a suitable home to multiple buyers. Positioned over approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ acre there are multiple established fruit trees, large double garage, solar panels and rear lane access.
