Located in a quiet tree lined street, this charming 'federation' style home consists of two bedrooms and one spacious bathroom. This fully furnished and equipped home offers both traditional and unique styles both inside and outside, making it a very comfortable and welcome retreat. Inside features include a formal living and dining area as well as a casual meals area and a spacious kitchen. Character features include original fire places, high ceilings, stained glass doors and windows. There are also modern creature comforts in the form of ducted evaporative air conditioning. Outside features include external laundry/utility room, large tiled verandas overlooking the peaceful enclosed gardens and carport parking for one car. Being centrally located means that you are within walking distance of Subiaco's cosmopolitan cafes, restaurants and trendy shops. Close to the beautiful surrounds of Kings Park, the bus network & the city of Perth. If you need or would like to be close to the CBD or surrounding area this would be ideal. Lease period- Minimum 3 months and maximum 6 months
