The home's design maximises the amount of space without compromising on the flow or liveability making it the functionality of the house. Highlighting a beautiful entrance with two bedrooms and built in robes, a spacious central bathroom with a separate shower and bathtub, a central laundry with side access outside, then an expansive open plan kitchen, dining and living area with bi folding doors opening onto an entertaining deck and deep backyard with a shed and roller door for off street parking via ROW. The parents retreat upstairs consists of the 3rd bedroom with an extensive walk-in robe and study area along with a second bathroom ensuite. Other features include European cooking appliances and ample cupboard storage in the kitchen, heating and cooling throughout the home, manicured gardens with a wide backyard. Walking distance to St Georges Road tram into the CBD , Parks, schools, Merri Creek trails and High Street Thornbury. A wonderful home that offers the very best in low maintenance living with terrific period appeal along with a modern renovation.
