This one-bedroom gem exudes warmth and tranquility, offering the perfect retreat amidst the bustling cityscape. With its prime location and exceptional transport links, residents here enjoy unparalleled access to amenities. A mere 5-minute stroll leads to the vibrant Westfield Woden and the interchange, while a 10-minute walk takes you to Canberra College and the Hellenic Club. Every aspect of daily life is effortlessly catered to, with supermarkets, restaurants, pharmacies, gyms, and shops at your doorstep. Adjacent to the apartment lies the verdant expanse of Eddison Park, providing ample opportunities for leisurely strolls and outdoor activities. Step inside to discover a fully furnished sanctuary adorned with plush carpets, inviting you to unwind and relax. Positioned on the ground floor, the open and airy floorplan seamlessly connects the living room and bedroom to a private, covered rear garden, promising moments of serenity amidst nature. The kitchen is a culinary delight, boasting generous storage space and a double-door refrigerator. Modern amenities including an induction cooktop, oven, and dishwasher elevate the cooking experience. Additionally, split system air conditioning ensures year-round comfort, making this abode a sanctuary to call home.
