This amazing four-bedroom shack is a rarity in the Central Highlands! The fantastic property has been set up for an Air-BnB and is ready to go (STCA), with four spacious rooms, two separate bathrooms and a large open plan living, dining, kitchen and sitting area, this home could not be better designed! A complete renovation throughout has brought this shack into the modern era and has been completed to a fantastic standard. The property also boasts a gorgeous north-west facing deck that flows from the dining and a large shed to store boats etc. Miena is the heart of the Central Highlands and is located in the middle of everything it has to offer including the two hotels, multiple world class trout fishery lakes and endless native bushland. The property sits on a large and flat 1612m² block and allows for privacy and practicality. This shack is serviced by town power, an on-site septic system and rainwater tank collection.
