This well maintained home is across the road from the beach access, around the corner from local shops and public transport. A very tidy kitchen is located adjoining the combined lounge/dining area, which opens out to an undercover patio and backyard with plenty of room. The 3 good sized bedrooms all have built-in robes and share a centrally located main bathroom. The double garage at the front is larger than average and easily accommodates 2 cars. A private garden on the north-eastern side is private and fully fenced, the perfect place for kids to play when you get back from the beach.
