Value buying in Mitchelton! An opportunity like this is hard to come by in the ever-popular family suburb of Mitchelton. This might be the last opportunity to buy a freehold home in this price range so act fast to secure this Gem. Tucked away behind a beautiful front garden, this move-in ready, post war, weatherboard home is complete with a bright and functional kitchen, as well as a renovated bathroom with a large shower. Three generous bedrooms take full advantage of the great natural light and breezes from the home's elevated position. Modern split system air-conditioners service the living room, main bedroom and second bedroom, as well as modern stainless-steel fans throughout. The lower level of the home is fully secure and concreted to provide a huge space for storage, workshop, and a single car garage. The elevated 586m² block gently slopes from the road and provides a perfect black canvass for gardening, a shed or just a place for the kids to play. Located in an elevated position close to public transport, great local schools and both the Arana Hills Plaza and Great Western Shopping Centre, Keperra, this family home will be appreciated by investors and home buyers alike. - Walking distance to great local parks and schools - Post-war weatherboard home with Zinacalume roof - 586m² freehold block - Walking distance to Mitchelton State School and Primary School - Short drive to Arana Plaza and Great Western Shopping Centre Information contained on any marketing material, website or other portal should not be relied upon and you should make your own enquiries and seek your own independent advice with respect to any property advertised or the information about the property.
