Situated 2km from town, with elevated water views of the Tenterfield dam, this home will not disappoint. Built in the early 1950's, stunning period features are still prominent throughout the home with original timber flooring, lighting & crown moulding. The home has been refinished to compliment the era of the home, retaining the character and charm it is known for. Huge windows from every room allow you to take in the incredible views on offer. Positioned on 4 acres, surrounded by established gardens and trees, Loch Lomond is the ideal property for those seeking the 'homesteading' lifestyle, while still being in close proximity to town. The property is divided into several paddocks perfect for those with a few horses or hobby farm animals. Plenty of room for the avid gardener to grow flowers, food or a small crop in the fertile, rock-free soil. Solid timber construction comprising of 3 levels, the main floor home to the kitchen, lounge/dining with wood heating, bathroom and separate toilet, main bedroom and fourth bedroom/study. Both bedrooms feature glass doors opening onto the outdoor patio. Upstairs features two generous-sized bedrooms, ample storage and beautiful dam views from the dormer windows. The basement level is home to a single car garage with an automatic roller door, laundry, gym, workshop & storage room. Outside you will find an undercover barbeque / entertaining area. Stables & additional workshop area/tack room with power are also included. Tenterfield is known for its quaint country lifestyle with so much to offer. With recent funding secured for the Angry Bulls Mountain Bike Trails and various up-and-coming tourism opportunities, the time is now to secure your dream home in Tenterfield.
