Delighted to bring to market a superbly presented 4 bedroom lowset family home, presents as new. Fresh and updated colour palate breathes new life into this well designed spacious layout. The home has many focal points and elevates your entertaining experience, whether it be enjoying an afternoon sundowner on superb outdoor hardwood deck with views to the forest and mountains, or simply taking refuge in the undercover entertaining area. Peace and tranquillity is assured. The large airconditioned lounge flows out to the entertaining area, as does the kitchen and dining room. The master with ensuite is at the back off the house ensuring quiet and privacy. Each of the bedrooms are separated from the others. The mature landscaped gardens are easy to maintain and complement the ambience of the property. Ideal location, close to all the major retail outlets, supermarkets, schools, transport, and accessibility to the M1 make this an ideal property for the growing family or for the smart investor to secure valuable asset. This property won't last long, so do not hesitate or you will miss out on this outstanding property.
