An idyllic double brick semi solidly built c1930 has undergone a complete transformation to present as a quality, fully renovated family starter with access via Marlborough Road. Wrapped by private, easy-care hedging and north facing level lawn, as well as a secure entertaining courtyard to the rear, it is both child and pet friendly with room to entertain. With nothing left to spend, this Torrens title residence is an exceptional first home, downsizer, or investment opportunity. Showcasing timber floorboards, high skirting and soaring 2.8 metre ceilings, this contemporary retreat has managed to retain a lot of its original character charm. There is a separate lounge room with ornamental fireplace and luxury kitchen featuring floor to ceiling cabinetry along with quality gas appliances and an adjacent dining space. Completed by a sunroom or home office and versatile double garage with storage, its immaculately presented with Daikin split system air con, plantation shutters and three strikingly chic bathrooms. An ultra-convenient address equidistant to High Street and Harris Farm shopping, Castlecrag's dining scene, Northbridge Plaza and Willoughby Road shops, it offers easy access to both Chatswood and Artarmon rail. Delivering an easy commute just 5km to North Sydney and 8.5km to the Sydney CBD, this polished residence is in the catchment area for Willoughby Public School and sought after local High schools.
