A superb Italianate style Victorian stately home in a premier high-profile location, Comaques was built c1891 for Alfred White, a leading architect of the time, as his own family residence. Steeped in history and adorned by pristine period detailing, this exquisite residence has been stylishly modernised to cater for luxurious contemporary living. Featuring expansive formal and casual living and entertaining areas, vast upstairs bedroom accommodation, opulent bathrooms and the quintessential Victorian tower with sweeping 360-degree views. A huge quality-equipped kitchen, wine cellar, bar and alfresco poolside terrace contribute to the boundless entertaining capacity of this outstanding home in the heart of the private school precinct, walk to MLC, Trinity, Xavier and Ruyton, plus Carey, Preshil and Genazzano nearby. The numerous amenities of Kew Junction and Glenferrie Road are within easy access, plus local shops and bus, tram and Eastern Freeway to the CBD. Terms: 10% deposit, balance 30 days
