This exceptionally maintained modern home in this secluded pocket of Altona has something for the whole family to enjoy. With ample rear parkland, there is the bonus of your own playground to explore and create childhood adventures. With every detail carefully considered and catered for, you can move in and enjoy the wonderful space and design features that this spectacular executive residence has to offer. • Four bedrooms, master with ensuite and patio. • Impressive gourmet kitchen with stone bench tops. • Large open plan dining and living with parkland views. • Balcony and BBQ for family entertainment. • Garage with internal access, external staircase to balcony. • Split system heating and cooling, Spotted Gum timber floors. • Tasmanian Oak floating staircase, alarm and security cameras. • Set amongst low maintenance gardens. This really is a super impressive property and is walking distance to Westona Train Station, Harrington Square Shopping Precinct, as well as schools (both private and public) and wetland walks. With the foreshore a relatively short distance away, you will have found the ideal property to make your home in this ever-changing vibrant bayside location.
