Savour a unique blend of architectural brilliance and unparalleled luxury in this brand-new residence, perfect for discerning downsizers, growing families, or astute investors. This single-level haven transcends the norm, dazzling with its standout facade, towering ceilings, and chic chevron-patterned floorboards. As you step inside, you'll encounter curved walls offering visual intrigue, while strategically placed skylights bathe the interior in a gentle, natural glow. Anchoring the home is a generous living and dining room, resting beneath dramatic, sky-lit cathedral ceilings. Expansive windows frame captivating views of the alfresco patio and adjacent garden, facilitating a seamless indoor-outdoor integration. Meet your culinary ambitions in the gourmet kitchen, fitted with superior Miele appliances, durable stone benchtops, and a welcoming breakfast bar – the ideal venue for casual meals or intimate entertaining. The stylish main bedroom serves as a tranquil retreat, complete with mirrored built-in robes and a luxurious ensuite bathroom. Each of the two remaining bedrooms feature mirrored robes and private courtyard access and share a fashionable bathroom with an elliptical bath and shower. A fitted study with desk and shelving provides an ideal space for remote work distanced from the main living zones. Constant temperature control is guaranteed with ducted heating and air conditioning, while an oversized concealed European laundry, water tank, and single garage with internal access add practicality. This superlative home is located conveniently close to Bentleigh Secondary College, Tucker Road Primary School, Patterson Station, Highett and Bentleigh Shopping Centres, Westfield Southland, Dega Avenue Park, and GESAC.
