The lowset two bedroom unit has been freshly repainted and is ideally situated for a busy working couple who want to live walking distance to their office in the city. The unit is fully tiled ideal for ease of cleaning and perfect for our climate. The lounge room is spacious and cool because of the undercover area just outside. The unit is security screened and the courtyard is also securely fenced providing you with peace of mind. There are built ins to the main bedroom, ceiling fans throughout and the living area has a large split system air conditioner designed to cool the entire unit. The unit is vacant and ready to move into. Call today to organise a private viewing of this property or attend the open house on Saturday.
