Beautifully presented top floor apartment which benefits from a contemporary restoration whilst still retaining its Art Deco character features. Taking advantage of light-filled interiors with windows on three sides offering great views of the leafy neighborhood, plus a skylight in main living area. The living room space is generous in scale, open plan and great for entertaining. The property boasts a brand new kitchen with stone benches and Bosch appliances. The enclosed sunroom is a tranquil space that enjoys and captures the natural sunlight. It can double up as a great study or guest room space. Poised atop of a c1930s art deco building at the end of a sought-after cul-de-sac, this apartment is in a fantastic location. Only moments from village temptations along Clovelly Road and Frenchmans Road, it is also close to Randwick's central retail hub, local schools, parks and beaches. Your new home also has an express bus stop to the city on your doorstep. - Recently renovated, in turn-key condition - Double brick, only one common wall - High ornate ceilings, engineered timber flooring- Cross-flow ventilation and reverse cycle air- Soft-close kitchen cabinets, stone tops, breakfast bar - Built-in robes, master bedroom is king-sized - Pristine bathroom, discrete internal laundry- Large shared communal gardens - Convenient access to Clovelly & Coogee Beaches
