Located at the rear of the complex, this recently renovated unit is moments to shops, schools and transport. The formal living room is light and bright and offers a gas wall heater and split system unit. The lounge leads to the renovated kitchen/meals area that features a dishwasher, electric cooking and pantry. Two carpeted bedrooms offer great natural light with built in robes and ceiling fans and are serviced by the renovated main bathroom which offers both a bath and shower with a separate toilet. The laundry leads to the spacious low maintenance rear yard with synthetic turf. There is also a single garage with the bonus of an additional car space. Situated in Central Diamond Creek, cafés, shops and eateries are moments away, as is the Train Station, bus transport and walking trails.
