Generously proportioned, the living and dining room capture warm northerly light, overseen by a modern kitchen appointed with quality Bosch appliances, stone benchtops and excellent storage. Providing additional space, the comfortable north-facing sunroom offers a wonderful spot to curl up with a good book, leading outdoors to a spacious yet low-maintenance backyard, featuring an open-air deck and endless room for relaxing and socialising. Head upstairs where you will find a quiet study space, complemented by the master bedroom featuring built-in robes and a private ensuite, with two additional robed bedrooms serviced by a contemporary family bathroom. A long list of extras includes ducted heating, split system air conditioning, double-glazed windows, solar electricity, a water tank, a double auto garage with internal access and off-street visitor parking. In an unbeatable family-friendly location, the home is a short walk from Mitcham's thriving shopping and dining precinct, bus and train services, and minutes from the Eastern Freeway/EastLink, Westfield Doncaster, Eastland Shopping Centre, Costco and Box Hill Central.
