This well-maintained studio apartment boasts a prime location, with easy access to Albert Park and the Fitzroy Street shops. The studio features a large north-west facing window that overlooks a lush green space, bringing in plenty of natural light. Additional windows to the east enhance the brightness and warmth of the space. Warm, homely and convenient, with a recent installation of a split system air conditioner the apartment ensures comfort throughout the year. The well-designed layout includes a functional kitchen, a combined bathroom and laundry, and ample living space. The location offers excellent walkability to Albert Park, Fitzroy Street shops, and various dining and entertainment options on Acland Street. The St Kilda foreshore is also nearby, providing a perfect spot for leisure and recreation.
