Built with the demands of the professional couple in mind, this spacious two-bedroom entertainer delivers premium Bayside living revolving around the highly-valued combination of sunlight, space, and style. Introduced by expansive dining and living options, indoor entertaining links effortlessly to the inviting L-shaped undercover terrace for leafy outlooks and fabulous sun-kissed orientations. Both bedrooms featuring BIR are accommodated by sizable indoor and outdoor options for year-round entertaining and multi-setting escapes. With stainless-steel appliances and glass splashbacks, the gallery kitchen echoes the contemporary styling and spaciousness found throughout and suitably reflected in the main bathroom. The property is completed with a frameless glass shower, ceiling fans in both bedrooms, split-system A/C in the lounge and second bedroom, and wide hardwood flooring in the main living areas. Set 250m from Como Parade and 400m from the foreshore, this fabulous beachside address guarantees long-lasting amenity value, its blue-chip credentials enhanced by immediate access to Parkdale station and 40-minute train rides to Flinders Street Station.
