Welcome to 9 Attenborough Close, a delightful family residence nestled in the heart of Buderim, where comfort meets convenience in a quintessentially suburban setting. This splendid home boasts four generously sized bedrooms, two modern bathrooms, and ample parking with a secure double garage, all encompassed within a substantial 898 square metre plot. Families will appreciate the seamless blend of indoor and outdoor living spaces, with a sprawling saltwater swimming pool providing an idyllic retreat for those warm Queensland afternoons. The property's proximity to local shops ensures all necessities are within easy reach, while the serene backdrop of lush bushland, complete with access to a tranquil park, offers a perfect canvas for children's adventures. Situated in a private cul-de-sac, the house affords a peaceful lifestyle, with the added benefit of solar panelling to keep energy costs low. A handy storage shed caters to all your extra-curricular needs. The spacious living areas and bedrooms are designed for family comfort, promising a sanctuary for each member of the household. For the golfing enthusiasts, the revered Headland Golf Course is a mere 2 km away, and for beach lovers, a short drive unlocks the splendour of the Sunshine Coast's finest beaches. 9 Attenborough Close is a home that ticks every box for families seeking a central location with all the perks of coastal living.
