This stunning architecturally designed townhouse designed for modern living in a fantastic Braybrook location boasts a light-filled interior and high-quality appointments that will appeal to buyers. The interior comprises three generously sized bedrooms, master with a built-in robe and ensuite, with the remaining two bedrooms also featuring built-in robes. A sparkling central bathroom services the two bedrooms, a modern kitchen with stone countertops and gas cooktop sits in the centre of the open plan dining and living room that opens out through a glass slider to a large balcony. Additional features include a second balcony, powder room, European laundry, reverse cycle heating and cooling, dishwasher, double garage with remote controlled door, roller blinds, and security system. Conveniently located just three minutes' drive to Central West Shopping Centre, close to quality schools including zoned Braybrook college, and easily accessible public transportation, and Highpoint shopping centre. Just a short drive to Tottenham and Sunshine train stations, and approximately 11km to Melbourne's CBD. Contact Brenda Ngan on 0435152545 for further details and to arrange an inspection.
