Sprawled across 5,922 sq. metres (approx.) of private land at the end of an exclusive Kinfauns cul-de-sac, this dual-occupancy residence fulfils the dreams of intergenerational families craving space and flexibility. A spacious three-bedroom home sits alongside a second 2-bedroom home under one roofline, with an array of outbuildings solidifying its lifestyle appeal. The main residence boasts a timeless interior with high-quality finishes and excellent entertaining spaces, with formal and casual living and dining areas separated by a central kitchen with premium appliances. An alfresco entertaining area features an in-built barbecue and an above-ground spa, ideal for any manner of social soirees, with its three bedrooms contrasting with comfort along the quieter side of the home, including a master with a walk-in robe and ensuite. A double garage has been converted with a false wall into a rumpus/games room, connecting the primary residence to the 2-bedroom self-contained residence on the opposing side. Recently completed, it offers a stylish Smeg kitchen, separate lounge and dining areas, and two bedrooms with a central bathroom. Just over 1 hour from Melbourne's CBD, it offers a complete lifestyle opportunity moments from Bittern Village, Hastings High Street, and the greater appeal of the Mornington Peninsula hinterland. Additional features include a vegetable garden, a 6.0 x 4.0 (approx.) workshop, a freestanding studio, a remote entry gate, and split-system air conditioning.
