Nestled in a serene neighbourhood adjacent to the city, this spacious family abode basks in sunlight and overlooks a charming leafy reserve, exuding an atmosphere of spaciousness, tranquillity, and warmth. Crafted with family comfort in mind, this sturdy split-level home boasts a thoughtful layout. Sleeping quarters and living areas are cleverly segregated across different floors, while a versatile family room and rumpus await on the lower level, accessible via external stairs or conveniently through a trap door discreetly nestled in the master bedroom. Discerning observers will admire the timeless design elements of the era, including expansive windows inviting in natural light, lofty raked ceilings, an open-plan layout, and a focus on simplicity and practicality. - 3 bedrooms, master including built-in robes, all with voluminous raked ceilings. - Expansive living area welcomes natural light. - Kitchen includes electric cooktop & beautiful leafy outlook - Original solid pine timber floorboards throughout. Raked ceilings enhance space. - Lower level rumpus and family room, easily adapted to teenage retreat or guest accommodation. - Single street level lockup carport and with additional separate workshop located at the back of the house. - 500m to Koloona Park Playground.
