Classic inner west living takes on a bright and modern approach with this freshly presented period semi. Behind its vintage double brick facade is a fresh, light and airy residence that's been tastefully spruced up and updated to provide a great space for low-maintenance living. All of this is located in a prime corner position that's just a short stroll from bus transport and the train station, with the buzz of Petersham's shopping and dining scene just around the corner. It is also quietly situated in a leafy street and makes a ready-to-live-in property with significant ownership or investment rewards for those looking for a fantastic value-packed home.- Bright and supremely easy-to-maintain single-level layout- North-facing courtyard and entertainment space at the rear- A single carport with secure roller door access from the side- Three bedrooms, two are fitted with large mirrored robes- A generous lounge room plus a separate skylit dining area- Well-appointed gas kitchen plus a full bathroom with laundry- Plenty of scope to further update to add more style and value
