Situated in a private residential crescent within walking distance to the Gunnedah Golf Course, most schools, and the new Imagine day-care, this well-presented home is in great condition for its age. Featuring an approximately 917m² block, this south facing property with in-ground pool is sure to impress. Offering 4 spacious bedrooms - master with ensuite; the property offers a comfortable lounge and dining room plus second living area with built in bar. The electric kitchen provides plenty of storage, and a large window overlooks the undercover alfresco area and pool - perfect for entertaining guests and staying cool in summer. The main bathroom includes a bath, vanity and shower while the 4th bedroom is separate to the others - also with its own personal ensuite, it is securely situated within the double garage and ideal as a teenager / guest retreat or home office. Other desirable features include ducted evaporative cooling throughout, and gas point in living/dining area for winter heating. This well-located property has outstanding street presence.
