Situated in the gorgeous seaside village of Beechford, this two bedroom shack is just waiting for a new family to make happy memories within its walls. With stunning sea views from the living space, you will have many happy nights getting away from it all, watching the everchanging ocean, you may even see a whale pass by from the comfort of your own living room. This coastal village has a great culture with a true sense of community, and you are less than ten minutes from George Town on the back road, so, you get the shack feel while still being extremely close to amenities. The beach at Beechford is also extremely stunning and you are quite often its sole occupant.
