This tidy property presents an excellent opportunity to get your foot in the door at the lower end of the market. The price and the large block the home sits on (approx 1000sqm), make this a very good buying opportunity. There is also rear lane access to the property for those considering the option of a second dwelling at the rear. The home itself is well presented with a modern kitchen, polished floorboards and open plan living. There is plenty of value here whether you want to buy to live or lease it out.
