Grand Edwardian proportions and charming original features define this light filled single level residence, situated in an inviting tree lined location. A wide entrance hallway introduces high ceilings, sash windows, timber floors and exquisite period style ornamental fireplaces that feature throughout, punctuating through generous living spaces. Vibrant north facing orientation adds additional appeal, illuminating the open plan living room that opens through bifold doors to a vast timber deck, the perfect setting for enjoying the tranquillity of the private, tree shaded garden, or entertaining, just moments from Richmond Hill. A brilliant kitchen offers everyday practicality complete with Blanco and Miele appliances. Three huge bedrooms provide excellent flexibility, complemented by a central bathroom with separate shower and bath, and laundry facilities. Situated around the corner from Cairns Reserve, with Swan Street, Bridge Road and East Richmond station nearby. Would you like to Inspect this property?
