Welcome to 9 Green Point Drive - a home with stunning sunsets and captivating water views all year round. The owner of this very appealing property has transformed what may have been an average looking home set in an absolute blue ribbon location, into a beautiful lakeside home with a gorgeous Hamptons feel throughout. This wonderful renovation also incorporates an upstairs living area plus deck over the double garage - really opening up the light filled space and allowing for relaxed entertaining with family and friends. With front and rear decks you have so much choice of either taking in some sun or catching the cooling nor Easter come in thru Summer. Curl up with a good book and just take some time out. This is certainly the place to do it. Downstairs has also been renovated with kitchenette & bathroom all with that classic white themed interior. This room flows out onto a lower concrete deck flowing to the rear gardens. This rumpus/4th bedroom is the perfect opportunity for perhaps teenage retreat, extra accommodation or holiday rental potential - the choice is yours! The gardens are in themselves a wondrous addition to this home both front and rear. The rear gardens also boast a veggie patch, garden shed and easy steps down to the waterfront reserve below. Double auto garage also has a tandem spot for that 3rd car or a boat. All the hard work has been done for you. Encapsulating the very essence of chic Coastal Country living, you will not find a more beautiful place to escape the rat race and simply enjoy all that is on offer here in Green Point. The village of Green Point just a short drive from Forster and exudes tranquility and natural wonder all around you. From the National Parks, pristine Beaches, abundant bird life and all sorts of water activities it truly is a welcoming lifestyle for all ages. Call James Murphy 0407 095 175 for private inspection.
