Every now & then a truly unique property comes to market that is like no other. Specifically designed to enjoy all that the south coast has to offer from the bush to the beach. This home is meticulously presented, has an abundance of natural light, earthy tones complimenting the beachy vibe. The main bedroom has a northerly aspect, is both warm & inviting, with a large BIW & ceiling fan. There are multiple living areas to relax & unwind in, one offers a comfortable space & a lovely outlook, the other adjacent to the dining area has a cosy wood fireplace for the colder months. The modern kitchen has stone benchtops, an island bench & a huge pantry & loads of cupboard space. The centrally located laundry has a separate toilet & could easily fit a shower to give you the complete 2nd bathroom. In the centre of the property is an area to host your other cars, boat or utilise this space to entertain on those special occasions, in addition to a massive under house workshop. There is private access to Blackbutt nature reserve to go for a morning or afternoon walk & then come back to enjoy a BBQ in an entertaining area that features exposed timber ceiling, a breakfast bar plus an outdoor shower. Add to this the luxury of a 3.4m high lock up garage to accommodate the motorhome. All this just a short drive or bicycle ride to either Shellharbour north beach or little lake.
