Completely level and sundrenched throughout, this immaculate, four-bedroom home will please immediately with its neutral interiors and spacious domains. Meticulously maintained, inside and out you can move in, unpack and enjoy the peaceful surrounds that living in a cul de sac provides. Enter the home to a light filled, formal lounge that captures the summer breezes and warming, winter sun. There is also a separate, formal dining room that could be utilised as a study or media room. The well equipped kitchen is perfectly positioned to make living easy and features extensive bench space, good storage, electric cooking and a dishwasher. Adjacent to the kitchen and leading to the outdoors, the large, open plan, tiled family room provides a space to relax and hold family gatherings. The king size master suite features a WIR and ensuite whilst the remaining three bedrooms all have built in robes and will accommodate a queen sized bed and are serviced by a three way bathroom. Entertain and relax all year round under the large, covered patio area that overlooks the private rear yard with established gardens. Remote double garaging with loads of built in storage and drive thru access to the rear yard completes this immaculate residence. - Air conditioned living plus ceiling fans - Three way main bathroom - Multiple living areas - Covered entertaining area - Drive thru access from garage - Pest and building report available With shops, beaches, golf courses and schools within minutes this home is perfectly located to enjoy all that this wonderful locale provides.
