Displaying quaint mid-century modernism, this is an exciting opportunity to secure a home that has been lovingly maintained over the years and provides a blank canvas for new owners. This two-bedroom home enjoys a sunny north facing position while the rear entertaining deck provides an elevated view of the manicured landscaped gardens. This home is notably filled with natural light from multiple windows offering verdant views and the neutral colour palette, high ceilings and inviting atmosphere provide immediate comfort. The home offers a simple and relaxed floorplan comprising of two bedrooms, a main living area, a centrally positioned timber kitchen and dining space with picturesque views. The master bedroom features a convenient built-in wardrobe, while other highlights include an internal laundry, ceiling fans for added comfort, and further space is available under the deck, leading to a workshop and storeroom. Both front and rear gardens are adorned with well-established cool-climate plantings and trees, adding to the property's appeal. Situated conveniently close to all amenities, including the Springwood Town Centre and Train Station, this versatile layout offers numerous spots, both indoors and outdoors, to relax and unwind, providing ample opportunities to find peace and seclusion.
