:: 4 Bedroom :: 2 Bathroom :: Brick and Tile :: Walkin wardrobe Corindi Beach is picturesque and one of the most highly sought after seaside communities on the Coffs Coast. With an easy commute north to Grafton or south to Coffs Harbour, this quiet village features coffee shops, a post office, chemist, general store, tennis courts, skate park, beaches, and the Corindi Beach Hotel. Stroll to the sands of Corindi Beach approximately 500 metres from this four-bedroom, two-bathroom home. Set on an 854 square metre block you will feel relaxed and at ease with the space of this beautiful property. The large master suite showcases a walk-in robe and well-designed ensuite. Boasting an open plan lounge room, dining and kitchen area, accentuated with an island bench and plenty of cupboard space this property is an entertainer's dream. Why not fire up the BBQ as you flow from the open plan indoor space to the undercover outdoor entertainment area and take advantage of the fully fenced spacious back yard. Highlighted with solar panels on the roof this property has so much to offer, interest will be strong. You truly need an inspection to take in and appreciate everything this property has to offer. Contact Woolgoolga Real Estate to book an inspection today.
