It sounds like a great opportunity for anyone looking to purchase land in Lara! The location of 9 Kettlewell Drive in Lara seems convenient, with close proximity to essential amenities such as the Lara village shopping centre, Lara train station, local primary and public schools, sports grounds, and easy access to the freeway. If you're interested in purchasing this block of land, it's recommended to contact Reliance Real Estate or the designated real estate agent for more details. They can provide you with information on pricing, property features, and any other relevant details. Additionally, you may want to inquire about the zoning regulations, future development plans in the area, and any other factors that could impact your decision. Before making any commitments, it's always a good idea to conduct due diligence, including a site visit, to ensure the land meets your specific needs and expectations. If you have any specific questions or need further information about the property or the surrounding area, feel free to ask!
