What started as a little getaway has resulted in a love of the relaxed lifestyle on offer in Milang. Well positioned on just over 1000m², this beautifully presented home has a little something for everyone. The floor plan provides easy living with three bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and 2 wc. Generous dining area located off the kitchen which is complete with pantry and easy access to the laundry. A lovely lounge is located at the front of the home and enjoys tranquil views of the front garden. Outside there is a double carport, extensive shedding including a cute little potting shed and rustic entertaining area. Beyond this is a veggie garden and various fruit trees. Escape with a good book in front of the slow combustion fire in the winter, potter in the garden in spring or tinker in the shed all year round. Milang is a community with something for everyone. Sail, fish, and explore the area or venture a little further down the road to the beaches of the south coast or the Langhorne Creek wineries. Strathalbyn and Goolwa are a short drive, but why leave when the kids can skip to primary school, you can swing by the general store, bakery, local pub and enjoy fish and chips each Friday night in the caravan park. Enjoy a slower paced lifestyle on the water's edge.
