

9 Laura Place, Macksville, NSW 2447

Sold House

Friday, 12 April 2024

9 Laura Place, Macksville, NSW 2447

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Jennifer Miller

$660,000

Nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac, adorned with modern houses, this family home offers more than just a place to live - it's a place to create a lifetime of cherished memories. Bring your children to this welcoming 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home and watch as they scamper to claim one of the cosy carpeted bedrooms equipped with built-in robes for their little treasures. The modern kitchen layout is designed for efficiency and provides ample storage space for the chef of the home to store all their utensils. The expansive living areas feature beautiful, polished tiles throughout for easy cleaning of those unavoidable spills. Step outside, here you will picture yourself unwinding in the fully fenced backyard. Take a minute to imagine the sound of laughter coming from your children whilst they enjoy playing with their furry pet, alternatively choose to picture yourself relaxing as you gather with friends and family beneath the shelter of the outdoor entertainment area. With a park just a few metres away, every day promises new adventures and cherished memories. This is a place that you will proudly call home! If you are looking for an affordable family home, call Jennifer on 04049 765 032 to arrange an inspection today!