This appealing and well-maintained retro family home offers so much space inside and outside. In a quiet residential street in the Merrilands precinct, this stylish home includes a side drive, garage and wide street frontage with immediate comfort, and future potential to update and extend (STCA). Immediately welcoming the inviting central hall opens to spacious formal living room with OFP, four double bedrooms with built in robes, central family bathroom with shower over bath, well-equipped kitchen and meals area with stainless steel gas cooking, and a sprawling leafy rear garden. Additional highlights include separate laundry with second shower, separate WC, polished timber floors, gas ducted heating and shed. A sought-after residential area close to schools, parks, transport, local shops and cafes, Edwardes Street Village, Broadway, and High Street.
