Feels Like Home This property is located in a quiet cul-de-sac and is rich with warmth & character. When you enter the courtyard, you will discover a garden with an assortment of plants, trees, flowers and raised vegetable garden beds. A sanctuary to enjoy your morning coffee or dine with family & friends. Move towards the two-storey home featuring an open plan living/kitchen and lounge with exposed timber cathedral ceiling allowing for natural sunlight and warm timber flooring throughout, a slow combustion wood heater, 2 x Reverse Cycle Air Conditioning, master bedroom with WiW, sewing/office room and bathroom. Move upstairs to the spacious mezzanine second lounge/office room with mountain views and two bedrooms. The property also showcases a separate Bungalow with bathroom/WiW, & Reverse Cycle Air Conditioning connected by a covered walkway perfect for the extended family, working from home or Airbnb, a fenced yard, workshop, parking and for something special, a rainforest or a fairy garden walk at the rear of the block. The property is only a short walk or drive from the quintessential heart of town with its allure of cafes, restaurants, and boutique shopping, or explore the many beaches, rivers and bush walking trails this area has to offer - for the investor rental forecast $740 to $780 per week - Take the time to book an inspection
