A rare opportunity exists to buy a large single storey family home nestled in a superb quiet location of Newhaven. Stroll along Newhaven's waterfront and absorb the atmosphere of this picturesque seaside village where time has stood still!! This beautiful and nearly brand new 4 bedroom, two bathroom home is situated on a generous block with many additional inclusions and upgrades that add to the feeling of quality. The home itself has dual living zones and large designer kitchen boasts quality 900mm appliances and stone benches and comes complete with reverse cycle heating and cooling to ensure year round comfort for all the family. You'll be surprised by the outdoor entertaining area just off the main living room surrounded by lawn and gardens and all fully fenced for your families safety. With a spacious double remote garage, huge gated area with access for your boat, caravan or both you'll find plenty space for the entire family to spread out. This property is perfect for families looking to settle in a great location. You'll be within walking distance to everything including the shops, the beach and of course the local primary school. Plus with the vibrant Newhaven community you'll be able to enjoy a huge range of local activities and events year round. You wont be disappointed when you step inside and see the potential of this home.
